PIZZA & POLICY

Is the Health Care Individual Mandate Constitutional? The fate of this controversial part of so-called "Obamacare" could come down to a deciding vote by Supreme Court Justice Anthony Kennedy, as several Federal Circuit Courts of Appeals have reached opposite conclusions as to its constitutionality. Constitutional Law Professor Michael Dimino, who has been asked to comment on this issue in various media, will address this cutting edge topic at the next Pizza and Policy in the Pit, Thursday, October 13 beginning at noon. Pizza and beverages will be provided.

EXAMSOFT INFORMATION

ExamSoft is a company that supplies software called SofTest that permits you to take your final examinations using your own laptop. SofTest blocks access to your hard drive and all other applications while you are taking your examination. If you choose to use SofTest, you must provide your own laptop and power cord (the laptop battery is not enough). We will print your completed examinations and deliver to your professors.

NOTE

Because the majority of our students are using ExamSoft, you will be automatically registered for ExamSoft. The cost is $60.00 for the academic year ($30.00 FALL/$30.00 SPRING). If you do not wish to use ExamSoft and would rather write your exams, you will need to come to the Registrar's Office by November 18th to have the amount credited to your account.

OCTOBER'S FUTURE ALUMNI SPOTLIGHT AND WOWIE

This month's WOWIE, Tara Horvath, is a graduate of Moravian College and Theological Seminary in Bethlehem, PA. It was here that she honed her study skills while majoring in the Criminal Justice Track of the Sociology program and completing a minor in Management. Additionally, Tara served as the Secretary for Moravian College's Chapter of Relay for Life.

Her parents, who have always been the greatest influence in her life, inspired her to attend law school. She was drawn to Widener Law's Harrisburg Campus in particular because of its location. Tara will graduate this May and hopes to practice in either Pennsylvania or New Jersey post-law school graduation. Since Tara is graduating this academic year, she has some valuable information she can share with 1L students: "Definitely find a study group, or at least a study partner for each class."

Tara hails from Metuchen, New Jersey. Not only is this the hometown of our October WOWIE, but also David Copperfield!

The WOWIE award is given to a current student who is selected at random on a monthly basis. Each winning future alumnus/a will receive a gift from the Office of Alumni Relations and Development.
