Widener University School of Law, Harrisburg, PA, presents

The John Gedid Lecture Series

State Assistance (Interference?) in the Enforcement of Federal Immigration Law

Gabriel "Jack" Chin
Professor of Law
University of California, Davis, School of Law

Monday, March 26, 2012
4:30 p.m., Room A180

One free substantive CLE credit available
Reception to follow

Gabriel "Jack" Chin teaches at the University of California, Davis, School of Law where he specializes in criminal law, immigration and race and law. In Padilla v. Kentucky, 130 S. Ct. 1473 (2010), the Justices cited his article, Effective Assistance of Counsel and the Consequences of Guilty Pleas, five times in opinions agreeing that the Sixth Amendment required defense attorneys to advise clients about the possibility of deportation. He is the author of The Unconstitutionality of State Regulation of Immigration Through Criminal Law, 61 DUKE LAW JOURNAL 251 (2011) (with Marc Miller). He previously taught at the University of Arizona, the University of Cincinnati and Western New England University. Before entering teaching, he earned a J.D. at Michigan and an LL.M. at Yale, and served as law clerk to U.S. District Judge Richard P. Matsch in Denver.

Sandy Graeff at 717-541-3965 or slgraeff@widener.edu

This lecture series honors John Gedid, one of the founders of the Harrisburg campus of our law school, and the campus's first vice-dean who has subsequently served as a wonderful mentor to every faculty member the school has hired. The series showcases the work of nationally recognized young scholars much in the same way Dean and Professor Gedid has fostered, encouraged and applauded the work of those who joined the school he helped to found.

Wolters Kluwer is Proud to be a Sponsor of the John Gedid Lecture Series.

STUDENT WEB CORRESPONDENT FOR HARRISBURG CAMPUS

The Law School Web Development Office is looking for a Student Web Correspondent for the 2012-13 academic year, with the ability to start in Spring 2012 and learn under the current Student Web Correspondent.

Responsibilities: The Student Web Correspondent for the Harrisburg campus will be responsible for attending certain campus events and reporting on them for the school's website (http://law.widener.edu). Event coverage includes the use of a digital camera to snap photographs and shoot short video clips as well as the taking of notes. The correspondent will then be responsible for writing a short article on the event, which will then be submitted to the Web Editor for proofing.

Qualifications and Requirements: Interested students should have solid writing skills and must be able to use a digital camera. Qualified candidates must be able to meet tight deadlines and work on multiple projects simultaneously. Writing samples are required. Students with backgrounds in journalism or other writing disciplines are especially encouraged to apply.

Work Schedule: Roughly 10 hours a week. Work time will vary week to week. Must have flexibility to cover evening and possibly some weekend events.

Wage Rate: $8.00 per hour.

Application: Interested students should submit a résumé and a short expository or descriptive writing sample (no more than 5 pages) to the Law school's Web Development Office via email. Application and supplemental materials should be submitted to ngarrison@widener.edu.

Please Note: The position reports to the Web Editor, but Harrisburg LIC Director Patricia Fox acts as the liaison, coordinating paperwork and time sheets.

FROM THE LIBRARY

As the spring semester winds down it is time to start thinking about preparing for final exams.

Some suggested library resources include:

CALI lessons connected to a specific class can be a helpful review. Click HERE for a list of the available lessons related to popular case books.

The library has a variety of study aids by subject that you can consult. Click HERE for a list of Hornbooks, HERE for a list of Examples and Explanations titles, and HERE for the Understanding series.

There are also a variety of resources online dealing with law exam prep; offering organizational tips, and study hints. Though these links are somewhat dated, they should prove helpful:

A podcast on how to approach law school exam taking can be found HERE from Law School Podcaster.

The Law School Academic Support Blog posted HERE on exam studying tips.

The Wall Street Journal asked a few law professors HERE what a good exam answer looks like.

Widener University School of Law
2012 Summer International Law Institutes
Earn Law Credits Overseas This Summer

Summer is the perfect time to earn credits while experiencing international cultures and learning different perspectives of faculty and students from foreign countries. With the globalization of the world economy, an understanding of international business, trade, and jurisdiction has become essential for the modern lawyer. Why not consider adding a law-related experience to your resume' that stands out to employers and may open opportunities in an increasingly global world of law practice.

Widener School of Law is offering the following International Law Institutes for Summer 2012

Nairobi International Law Institute
June 11 - July 10, 2012
Courses:
- International Environmental Law & Trade
- Comparative Corporate Law
- Comparative Constitutional Law I & II

Venice International Law Institute
June 18 - July 13, 2012
Courses:
- Global Issues in Family Law: Comp. Perspectives
- Comparative Constitutional Law
- Comparative Corporate Law
- Global Issues in Family Law: I'ntl. Perspectives
- European Union Law
- Comparative Political Rights & Electoral Systems

Lausanne International Law Institute
June 1 - June 29, 2012
Courses:
- Global Issues in Commercial Law
- Comparative & International Health Law
- Trading In and With Europe
- Global Issues in Commercial Law II CISG
- Intro to International Investment Law
- International IP Law & Policy

Each one is really different and each one provides amazing opportunities not just to visit foreign countries but to live in one and to learn about different cultures and to learn something about yourself... All programs are organized to allow students to balance class work with time to explore and learn about the country.
