Monday, October 10, 2022
Virtual (Zoom link will be provided)

4pm	Frank Kostik, Regional Defense Counsel at the United States Army Trial Defense Service , is the featured speaker and he will cover professionalism and ethics.
5pm	Amanda Lavis, Chief Diversity Officer at DEVCOMM, Army Futures Command , will speak on diversity, equity and inclusion.
6pm	Kim Cole, Cofounder at The Sales Zone , will share tips on marketing and networking through LinkedIn.
7pm	In a special session for 3RD and 4ED students only , Jessica Holst, Lead Investigator at the Pennsylvania Board of Law Examiners , will discuss the 2023 bar exam application process and the bar exam itself.

Important Information:

Professional Development Day registration is now open on CORE. Register by 11:59pm Sunday, October 2.

All students must attend 3 hours of programming from 4pm to 7pm (4EDs who have been ED students all 4 years do not need to attend but are welcome to do so).

All graduating students must also attend the special session from 7-8pm as it pertains to the 2023 bar exam.

Before you can register for PDD sessions, you must first register for CORE. Instructions on registering were provided to all 1L students by email on September 23. If you have any questions on registering for CORE or PDD, please contact Carolyn Dreer at cedreer@widener.edu.

The Zoom link for all PDD sessions will be provided to registrants by email before October 10. Just like attorneys are required to attend CLE courses in their entirety to earn the credits, students are also required to attend PDD sessions in their entirety to earn the credits. Business attire is required and cameras must be on.

If you have any questions, please contact Melissa Laney, Esquire, Adjunct Instructor, at mtlaney@widener.edu.
