Commonwealth Bookstore Briefs

Welcome new and returning students!

As many of you have already discovered, things have been a little chaotic in the bookstore. We were acquired by another company and are dealing with all new equipment and processes. We sincerely appreciate the amazing patience that all of you have shown waiting in line while we navigated through new procedures.

Just a quick summary of what has changed:

- Most exciting, we have a new name! Almost daily we are receiving merchandise with the new logos. We soon hope to have polo's, hats and mugs. Feel free to suggest any items you would like us to carry.

- We still do price matching, however we now only accept quotes from Amazon, Barnes and Noble and Chegg. Visit our website (www.bkstr.com/widenerlawstore) or our store for complete details. The difference in savings is now given back on a gift card which can be used on another or future transactions. Not all texts are rentable, but we will price match those that are.

- Digital versions are available for some texts. See us if you are interested in that option.

- Our returns policy is essentially the same. You have through add/drop to return texts for full refund. After that you can return within 24 hours of purchase. Receipt is required for all refunds. See store for complete details.

- Unfortunately, the military discount is no longer available. Perhaps that will change in the future.
Meet the SBA Executive Council . . .

For the next several weeks, the SBA will be introducing you to a member of the Executive Council, this week meet:

Vice President Academic

Jocelyn Schultz

Jocelyn G. Schultz is an alumnus of Bloomsburg University where she majored in Criminal Justice and minored in Computer Forensics. During her summer as a 1L, Jocelyn interned at the Department of Corrections through the Office of General Counsel. As a law student at Widener Commonwealth, Jocelyn is involved in the Student Bar Association as the Academic Vice President, the Widener Journal of Law, Economics, and Race, the Public Interest Law Society, and will be trying out for the Trial Advocacy Honor Society. Jocelyn is interested in pursuing civil or criminal law or government law after graduating and passing the Bar. As the Academic Vice President, Jocelyn hopes to bring the student body closer together to create a more unified and positive environment and to provide beneficial programs and events that improve the quality of the student.
