REGISTRAR’S OFFICE

COMMENCEMENT CEREMONY 2015

National Anthem. “Oh say can you sing....” The Registrar’s Office is looking for a member of the graduation class of 2015—including December 2014, May 2015 and July 2015—to sing the National Anthem at the commencement ceremony on Sunday, May 17, 2015. If you are interested or know someone who is, please contact the Registrar’s Office.

Invocation/Benediction. The Registrar’s Office is also looking for a member of the clergy to give the invocation and benediction at the commencement ceremony. If you know of someone who would be interested in doing this, please contact the Registrar’s office.

ATTENTION: REGULAR DIVISION STUDENTS

EMPLOYMENT FORMS DUE

Every semester Regular Division students need to fill out an Employment Form and return it to the Registrar’s Office. These forms were due February 2. See Handbook Section 311, “Outside Employment” of the Academic Code.

For your convenience, there is an “Administrative Center Mailbox” in the Library Building that you may put it in. (The box is around the corner from the elevator, 2nd floor)

LOCKERS

Locker keys are available in the Registrar’s Office. Lockers are located on the second floor of the Library Building. There is a $5.00 deposit for a locker key.

OPTING OUT OF EXAM-SOFT?

If you are not using your computer to take your exams, you will need to come to the Registrar’s Office or do an on-line form by April 22 or before this date if you have a quiz or mid-term.

Todd Aagaard is Professor of Law at Villanova University School of Law. Most recently, his work has examined the intersections of environmental law, energy law, and other fields, and the diversity of laws with environmental implications outside of the traditional environmental law canon. He previously worked in the Environment and Natural Resource Division of the U.S. Department of Justice, where he briefed and argued cases in federal courts of appeals in the areas of environmental law, natural resources law, Indian law, and administrative law.

Joshua Gellers, PhD, LEED Green Associate, is an Assistant Professor in the Department of Political Science and Public Administration at the University of North Florida and an Honorary Fellow at the South African Institute of Advanced Studies in Kathmandu, Nepal. His current research examines the impact and implementation of constitutional environmental rights. Josh runs Enviro Rights Map, a free Google maps-based website which catalogs constitutional environmental rights throughout the world.

Louis Kotze is Research Professor at the Faculty of Law of the North-West University (Potchefstroom Campus), South Africa and Visiting Professor of Environmental Law at the University of Lincoln, United Kingdom. His research focuses on environmental constitutionalism, human rights and the environment, and on global environmental governance. Louis is also a respected and lifetime honorary member of the Mine Society in his hometown of Potchefstroom, South Africa.

Linda A. Malone is the Marshall Wythe Foundation Professor of Law and the Founding Director of the Human Security Law Center at the College of William and Mary School of Law. She is a member of the American Law Institute and a Board member of the International Society for the Reform of Criminal Law. She is the author of numerous articles in a wide range of publications and has authored and co-authored 12 books on international law, human rights, and environmental law.
