

Learning Outcomes: Advocacy Certificate

The objective of the Advocacy Certificate is to provide students with hands-on learning opportunities in litigation (civil, criminal, and administrative) and dispute resolution. To that end, a student earning the certificate will have demonstrated the ability to:

1. Make an opening statement;
2. Question witnesses, both on direct- and cross-examination;
3. Make a closing argument;
4. Assess and critique the advocacy of others;
5. Advocate in writing for a client's position.
