

WIDENER COMMONWEALTH LAW SCHOOL
SUMMER / FALL 2025 COURSE DESCRIPTIONS

LAW 530: ADMINISTRATIVE LAW (3 CREDITS)

This course studies the law governing administrative agencies, including executive departments, in the task of carrying out governmental programs. Topics include interrelations of legislative, executive and judicial agencies in development of public policy; decision-making processes and internal procedures of administrative agencies and legislative, executive and judicial controls on them.

LAW 879: ALTERNATIVE DISPUTE RESOLUTION (2 CREDITS)

This course considers all the alternatives to traditional adversarial state and federal court adjudication, such as arbitration, mediation, negotiation, dispute prevention, conciliation, neutral facilitators, and private judging. It also examines court-annexed dispute resolution, such as mediated court settlement, summary jury trials, mini-trials and the use of referees and masters. Having identified and examined the emerging alternative techniques, the various methods are examined for effectiveness in light of the growing acceptance of ADR by the courts in all areas, including public policy questions. The course consists of a combination of lectures and class discussions, videos, and guest speakers. All students will participate in simulations or "mock" interviewing and counseling, negotiation, and mediation sessions.

There will be a two hour closed book exam.

LAW 7002: BUSINESS BASICS (1 CREDIT)

This course is designed to demystify business concepts so that students beginning courses in corporate and commercial law have some familiarity with the language of business. Although business lawyers do not keep their clients' financial books and records or model the financial effects of acquisition transactions, they need a basic understanding of accounting and finance in order to understand and find solutions to their clients' problems. This course will provide students with a basic knowledge of essential business and finance concepts such as the balance sheet, the time value of money, valuation of a business, and the difference between debt and equity.

LAW 631: BUSINESS ORGANIZATIONS (3 CREDITS)

A.J.D./LL.M survey course that analyzes the conduct of business in each of the principal forms of business organization, and the relative rights and liabilities of the members of such organizations and third persons. The course reviews the uniform partnership statutes, the Model Business Corporation Act, and the Delaware General Corporation Law, and considers the legal principles governing agency and partnership relationships as well as corporations. The course introduces the federal securities laws and the state statutes governing limited liability companies, limited partnerships and limited liability partnerships.

LAW 925: CENTRAL PENNSYLVANIA LAW CLINICS (2-6 CREDITS)

The Pennsylvania Civil Clinic is a one-semester client service clinical program offering an opportunity to study and to undertake actual cases in general civil litigation in the Pennsylvania courts on behalf of clients who are unable to afford legal services from traditional private sources. Clinical participants interview and counsel clients; frame legal issues and prepare for litigation; and participate in negotiations, non-judicial dispute resolution and litigation on behalf of clients before administrative agencies and state and federal trial courts. Students may also assist in appellate cases before state and federal courts. Clients are represented by clinical interns under the supervision of the Clinical Director.

Pre-requisites: Evidence & Professional Responsibility

LAW 926: CENTRAL PENNSYLVANIA LAW CLINICS LEADER (2 CREDITS)

The Pennsylvania Civil Clinic Leader is a one semester client service clinical program offered to selected students who have completed one semester in the Pennsylvania Civil Clinic. Students who are selected as Clinic Leader will continue to participate in the representation of actual clients in the general civil practice of the clinic. In addition, Clinic Leaders assist in the management of the Civil Clinic by ensuring that the materials used by the Clinic comply with applicable rules. The Clinic Leader also assists in supervising students by helping them in their research as well as their preparation for court proceedings. Clinic Leaders may also be asked to continue representation of clients from prior semesters or to work on special projects that may arise in the Civil Clinic from time to time.

Pre-requisites: Evidence, Professional Responsibility, and Pennsylvania Civil Clinic

The course prepares students to navigate the technology, business, and legal implications of the AI supply chain with knowledge and confidence.

LAW 690: FUNDAMENTALS OF THE BAR EXAM (2 CREDITS)

Fundamental of the Bar Exam is a pre-bar review skills-development course that uses bar examination materials to familiarize students with techniques for answering the multiple choice, essay, and performance test questions found on the bar examination. The course focuses on bar exam skills and is not a comprehensive review of the substantive law tested on the bar exam. This course is not a substitute for a commercial bar preparation course.

LAW 6035: GOVERNMENT LAW COLLOQUIUM (1 CREDIT)

This seminar will consider the special areas of law that are involved in litigation by or against a state or local agency. It will review such substantive areas of law as mandamus; statutory construction; when the existence of a statutory procedure precludes other forms of litigation, such as a declaratory judgment action; and a constitutional challenge to a state statute on procedural, as opposed to substantive grounds. The seminar will consider real life litigation, such as the pursuit of a zoning board appeal or a workers' compensation claim.

LAW 7037X: HIP HOP & THE LAW (1 CREDIT)

The goal of the course will be to further several pedagogical, theoretical, and practical initiatives related to reading the intersections of law and hip hop culture. Simply, the course will draw upon the broad depth of scholarship, documentaries, journalistic reports, and interviews devoted to discussing, debating, and evaluating the presence of hip hop as a 21st Century cultural phenomenon. However, rather than solely focusing on hip hop, the course will ask students to think about how hip hop currently investigates and critiques American law. By centering the law, students will be required to think critically about hip hop's evaluation of such themes as the Fourth Amendment Searches and Seizures, Mass Incarceration and the Prison Industrial Complex, Black Sexual Politics, Feminism, Justice Narratives, to name a few. Students will be required to read high-level critical theory, social and cultural anthropologies, ethnographies of crime and capitalism, and legal scholarship on law, hip hop and punishment.

LAW 779: INTENSIVE TRIAL ADVOCACY PROGRAM (I.T.A.P.) (3 CREDITS)

Intensive Trial Advocacy is a three-credit, seven-day NITA-style trial advocacy training program, adapted from the NITA Regional Trial Advocacy course designed for young practitioners. Students develop trial advocacy skills by seeing live and videotape demonstrations of proper trial advocacy techniques, which are followed by small group simulations taught by experienced trial practitioners and trial advocacy teachers. THIS IS THE EQUIVALENT TO TRIAL METHODS. A STUDENT MAY NOT TAKE BOTH.

Pre-requisite: Evidence & Professional Responsibility

LAW 809: JUDICIAL EXTERNSHIP (2-4 CREDITS)

Students enrolled in the Judicial Externship Program are assigned to selected state and federal trial and appellate judges for a maximum of two semesters. Externs prepare legal memoranda, conduct legal research and perform duties normally assigned to a law clerk under the supervision of the assigned judge and the judge's graduate law clerk. The program is designed to enhance the student's writing and research skills, familiarize the student with court procedures, permit observation of court proceedings and enable the student to learn the operation of judicial chambers. Students will meet with the faculty supervisor for mid-semester and end-of-semester reviews. Students are required to keep a daily log and retain a copy of all written work produced for the court. Graded Pass/No Pass.

Pre-requisite: Evidence

Co-requisite: Professional Responsibility

LAWH 7022X: LAW & MINDFULNESS (2 CREDITS)

Law and Mindfulness examines how mindfulness and mindful practices can improve the underlying qualities lawyers need to succeed in law and that assist in developing essential lawyering skills including problem solving, counseling, analysis, and advocacy. In this course, you will learn not only the why of mindfulness, but will explore specific mindful practices allowing you to develop a consistent practice. You will also engage in the development of your own professional vision that answers the questions of how you want to live and who you want to be in the practice of law. This is a personally-engaging class involving self-reflection, journaling, and meditation – both in class and on your own. Drawing upon your experience with mindfulness, you will research and write a paper on the application of mindfulness to the practice of law. There is a required fee of $35 for a one day retreat that will be held on a Saturday in October.

LAW 6015X: LAW & POLICY OF SENTENCING AND CORRECTIONS (2 CREDITS)

A course that will prepare students to represent a client in a sentencing procedure and to negotiate plea agreements. LAW 509: LEGAL METHODS I (3 CREDITS)

This course introduces basic techniques of legal analysis, writing and research. Students will learn how to read legal authorities, conduct legal research, analyze legal problems, and draft predictive legal memoranda. Course requirements include substantial writing assignments.

LAW 512: LEGAL METHODS III – ADVANCED LEGAL RESEARCH (2 CREDITS)

This course will build upon basic legal research skills. The tools of legal research, including technology based sources, will be investigated in detail. Legislative History, research in specialized areas of law, and non-legal research will be covered. Emphasis will be placed on research techniques and sources that students will need to rely upon their practice of law.

Pre-requisites: Legal Methods I & II

LAW 512: LEGAL METHODS III – CONTRACT DRAFTING (2 CREDITS)

This course provides students with the opportunity to learn and practice the basic principles of contract drafting and interpretation. Emphasis will be placed on drafting agreements that effectuate clients' need and anticipate potential legal problems. Students will be required to work collaboratively in class, will have regular homework assignments to complete, and will individually draft several written contracts.

Pre-requisites: Legal Methods I & II

LAW 512: LEGAL METHODS III—FAMILY LAW PRACTICE (2 CREDITS)

The goal of this course is to enhance students' written and oral skills in the context of Family Law. Employing more sophisticated forms of analysis, presentation, and persuasion than are taught in Legal Methods I and II, students will research, draft, and edit written documents commonly used in a specific practice area. These documents may include business plans, client letters, office memoranda, trial-related pleadings or memoranda, or appellate briefs. Students will also give an oral presentation related to their written work product. This oral presentation may be a presentation to a client or in-house counsel, a mediation, or an argument before a trial or appellate court.

Pre-requisites: Legal Methods I & II; concurrent registration with appropriate subject matter course might be helpful, but is not required.

LAW 512: LEGAL METHODS III – WRITING FOR THE BAR (2 CREDITS)

This course helps jumpstart students' preparation for the essay and performance tests on the bar exam. In this course, students will enhance their legal writing, analytical, and organizational skills through intensive studying and writing practice. Students' legal and factual analytical reasoning skills and writing skills will be developed through multiple practice essay exams and performance tests. This course is designed to help students develop the skills needed to succeed on the bar exam and as newly admitted attorneys. This course is not a substitute for a bar preparation course. Students are encouraged to take this course in the year immediately preceding graduation.

LAW 645: LEGISLATION (3 CREDITS)

This course studies the enactment and interpretation of statutes, principally on the national level. As such, the course is one of separation of powers, as we consider the exercise of governmental power by, and the relationship between, the legislative, executive, and judicial branches. Students will learn tools for interpreting statutes and for arguing in favor of one interpretation over another; the course is not designed to teach doctrinal lessons. Students should have a basic familiarity with the legislative process and the separation of powers before beginning the course, which one can learn by reading an introductory text.

LAW 7012X: MIDPENN PRACTICUM (1 CREDIT)

Extended Division students will have the opportunity to participate in an externship placement in partnership with MidPenn Legal Services, the legal service provider for low-income clients in our region. The practicum will be made up of several opportunities to learn the law in the area of public interest representation, interviewing and counseling experience with client contact, and working with clients in clinical settings both in Dauphin and Perry counties. In addition to this experience, the first group of participating students will be involved in creating a new clinical program that MidPenn wishes to embark upon. Pardon Clinics operate in relatively few areas of the Commonwealth but provide great benefits for the recipients.

The process is set forth by the PA Board of Pardons but often is not easily managed by those seeking a pardon. Creating an efficient, accessible process where individuals have guidance is an opportunity for students to build a program that can be put into place in 2019. MidPenn will be the umbrella organization but WLC students will be able to be active "practitioners" in the program as part of their externship experience. Students will participate in the practicum as part of the current Clinical Externship program and will be required to comply with the requirements of that course.

LAW 902: MOOT COURT INTERSCHOLASTIC COMPETITION (1 CREDIT)
